Policy Statement

The faculty mailing list is under the control of the Vice Provost for Faculty and Academic Affairs. The Vice Provost's decision on its use is final. It should be kept in mind that it is appropriately used only for University or University related affairs and that many faculty already consider themselves overburdened with receipt of mail in which they have no interest. We further recommend that the list not be used for:

1. Partisan political activities.
2. Sales of any kind other than by official University agencies such as the Auditorium Series, the Bookstore, Athletic Department, Alumni Association, etc.
3. Solicitation of funds for support of any but an official University organization or the United Fund unless the solicitation is supported by the Faculty Council.
4. Material considered obscene, inflammatory, libelous or in any other way illegal.
