REVISED FAQ's FY24 Continuing Graduate Student Pay Increases

Effective August 1, 2023 for 10mo SAAs

Effective July 1, 2023 for 12mo SAAs

Graduate students who were appointed as an SAA in the Fall 2022 and/or Spring 2023 and continue to serve in the same SAA position will receive a 3.0% salary increase for FY 2024. New graduate students can be appointed at the current minimum rate of $22,000 or unit standard rate (if higher) for a 10-month appointment.

Please see below for a few examples to potential questions:

Student A is a new incoming student in Department X. The student is teaching an assigned course in the fall and spring semesters. The student stipend should be a minimum of $22,000 for a 10-month appointment.

Student B is a 3rd year student and was appointed as an SAA in Fall 2022. The student is teaching an assigned course in the upcoming fall and spring semesters. The stipend for this assignment should be at least $22,660 for a 10-month appointment.

Student C is a 4th year student in RC79. The student was on fellowship for FY 2023. For FY 2024, the student is teaching for the academic year. The student was not appointed as an SAA during the Fall 2022 and/or Spring 2023 semesters. Therefore, the student can start at the minimum rate of $22,000 for a 10-month assignment.

Student D is a continuing 5th year student in Department X. The student was paid $30,000 from external grant funding for FY 2023. In FY 2024, the student will be funded as an SAA with a teaching assignment for the academic year. The stipend for this assignment should be at least $22,660 for 10-month appointment as the student is continuing in a SAA position.

Student E is a continuing 4th year student in a Lab. The student was paid $32,000 as an SAA from external grant funding for FY 2023. In FY24, the student will continue to be funded as an SAA on the external grant. This student should receive a stipend increase to at least $32,960.

Student F is a continuing 2nd year student who was on a fellowship in the fall 2022 and an SAA in the spring 2023. The student is teaching an assigned course in the upcoming fall and spring semesters. The stipend for this assignment should be at least $22,660 for a 10-month appointment.

Student G is a continuing 3rd year student. The student is continuing work in a lab effective 7/1/23. The stipend for this assignment should be at least $27,192 for a 12-month appointment.

Fellowship funding is separate from the increases above.
